PAINS SO BAD WOULD GO TO BED

Two Women Tell How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stopped Their Suffering

Iron Mountain, Mich.—"I had terrible pains every month and at times had to go to bed on account of them. I saw your advertisement and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with very good results. I can work a day long now at my sick time. You may use these facts as a testimonial and I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends."—Mrs. A. H. GARLAND, 218 E. Brown St., Iron Mountain, Michigan.

Xenia, Ohio.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of my abdomen that I could not lie quietly in bed. I suffered for about five years that way and I was not regular either. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women, so I decided to try it. It really has helped me a lot, as I have no pains now and am regular and feeling fine."—Mrs. MARY DALL, Route 7, Xenia, Ohio.

If you suffer as did Mrs. Garland or Mrs. Dale, you should give this well-known medicine a thorough trial.

GOING TO CEYLON MISSION
AFTER WEDDING IN GROTON

Many people in the vicinity of Norwich will be greatly interested in the wedding of Miss Gladys Leeson Thompson, daughter of Mrs. John Thompson, recently of Preston and Jewett City and Dr. William J. Thompson of Schenectady, N. Y. The ceremony took place at 3 p. m., on Tuesday October 10th at the Groton (Ct.) Congregational church, which had been beautifully decorated by Miss Gladys Thompson and her friends.

The bride was given away by her father, Dr. William J. Thompson, who is now residing with Miss Thompson's sister, Mrs. Robert J. Burroughs in Groton Park, where a reception to the out-of-town friends was held directly after the wedding.

Dr. and Mrs. Jameson are now on a brief honeymoon, going then to Newcomb, N. Y., where the Doctor has professional duties until they start abroad under commission of the American Board of Foreign Missions for service in the Jaffna Mission in Ceylon. Dr. Jameson will have charge of a hospital and the entire medical work of the mission. By a singular coincidence the clergyman married them, through his mother and grandparents, has connection with this mission field. His mother was born there, daughter of Rev. Henry Woodward and Harriette Emerson, the clergyman's wife.

Dr. Jameson is son of Mrs. William Jameson of Schenectady, N. Y. He was graduated at Union College in his native city and in 1920 from the Albany Medical College in Albany, N. Y., a graduate of Simmons College in Boston. During the war he was prominent in Red Cross work in Camp Lee, Virginia. She has recently been stationed at Ellis University in Schenectady and at the close of her term, came to her father's home in Groton, bringing her church letter to the Groton Congregational church.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses and a shower of lilies of the valley. The couple were attended by Miss Phoebe Burroughs of Plymouth, N. H., as bridesmaid who was canon of Groton and carried a bouquet of Opheelia roses. Mrs. Robert J. Burroughs was matron of honor and was dressed in brown tulle and velvet. She carried yellow roses. The best man was Robert J. Burroughs, Master Robert J. Burroughs, Jr., the ring bearer and the flower girl was Miss Ann Elizabeth Douglas of New London. She carried Aaron Ward roses.

About the middle of December Dr. and Mrs. Jameson will sail for England where Dr. Jameson will make special preparations for his field in the University of London. He must take a course in oriental diseases of business and examinations to practice medicine in Ceylon.

SHOWS GAIN OF 199 IN ANNUAL ENUMERATION OF CHILDREN, 4 TO 6

The annual enumeration of children between the ages of 4 and 16 years in Norwich, which has just been completed by the enumerators, Tyler D. Guy and Cornelius J. Downes, shows a gain this year of 199 over last year. The enumeration counted 5,320 children.

Eleven of the 15 school districts show gains, with West Chelsea leading on a gain of 34. Other districts to show appreciable gains were Central, Greenville, Bridge, Town street, West Town and East Great Plain. The loss was in Tatfield, Tatfield, Yantic, Long Society and Occum.

As the school board receives from the state $2.25 for each child enumerated, the amount to come this year, that source will be $11,570, which will more than cover the figure of $15,200 which the school board put in its estimate of receipts when making up its budget.

The enumerators found heavy co-operation on the part of the public in enabling them to get the complete figures and express their gratitude for this helpful attitude on the part of all who met, which materially aided them in securing the information required by the state to complete this important work for the town.

U. S. CHAMBER COMMERCE
SPEAKER COMING HERE

Ernest N. Smith of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, at Washington, will address the Norwich Chamber of Commerce next Tuesday on the subject, "It's Not Philanthropy—It's Good Business."

Mrs. Ida Brown Pastore of this city, whose husband tried to kill Florence Joyce of Waterford and himself in New London about two years ago, secured a divorce from him in the superior court at New London Friday on the ground of adultery with Florence Joyce. Pastore has just been released from jail after serving the sentence of a year that was given him for shooting the Joyce woman.

Pastore was the petitioner's second husband. She was given the right to resume her maiden name of Ida Mabel Perkins.

The testimony to prove adultery was given by Detective Sergeant Charles P. Hammond of New London, who testified that Pastore had admitted to him several times after the shooting his relations with the Joyce woman.

Mrs. Pastore merely gave testimony as to the date of her marriage to Pastore on May 13, 1916.

The setting which was the basis of the adultery charge against Pastore by his wife took place at his rooming house in Federal street and after he shot the Joyce woman he turned the weapon upon himself, having recovered from their wounds, however.

On the ground of desertion since April 14, 1919, Mary McFarland Arthur of New London was given divorce from Lee Arthur, now of parts unknown. They were married Dec. 15, 1914. The wife was given the custody of her two sons, aged 4 and 5 years.

Judge Jennings heard the testimony in the case of John B. Field of this city against Gertrude Bennett Field of parts unknown in which desertion was alleged. The marriage took place on May 11, 1901 and the defendant left her husband on the ground of desertion.

Adelle Bloomer Rogers of New London secured divorce from Morgan Rogers of New Haven on the grounds of intolerable cruelty since Jan. 1, 1919. They were married Dec. 2, 1902. She is given change of name to Adelle Bloomer.

Susie Lee Merrill of North Stonington secured divorce from Paul C. Merrill of the same place on the grounds of adultery at New London, Oct. 4, 1921 and Aug. 5, 1922 at Westerly with Ethel Randall. The couple were married May 10, 1919. The wife was given the custody of two daughters, aged 1 and 2 years.

AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Tuesday night 15 boys met at the First Baptist Church under the direction of its pastor, Rev. E. C. Dunbar, for the purpose of organizing a Scout Troop.

Mr. Dunbar is an enthusiastic worker with boys and has also been a Scout Master elsewhere. He stated that he was anxious to have a Scout troop here to moderate the boys of his church and those of that part of Norwich that do not belong to any troop already formed. His Assistant Scoutmaster will be Lawrence Browning, formerly Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 4, Trinity M. E. Church.

The First Baptist Church, consequently, will have two trained men in Scouting and there is every reason to expect that good Scout work will be done on the West Side.

Starting with this week there will be posted in prominent places in Norwich a "B. S. A. Weekly Pictorial of National Activities."

MUST PAY ALIMONY OR HE WILL GET JAIL TERM
Frank E. Perry, driver for the Northwest Hose Co. of New London, was presented before Judge Newell Jennings in the superior court here Friday morning for contempt for failure to pay alimony to his wife, Celia B. Perry. He was presented on motion of Attorney Clayton B. Smith, counsel for Mrs. Perry, that Perry should cause why contempt proceedings should not be taken against him and on failure to pay the alimony he be committed to jail.

Last June Mrs. Perry obtained a divorce from Perry in the superior court at New London. The grounds of adultery were alleged by Judge James H. Webb ordered Perry to pay his wife $125 within one week and $100 subsequently.

Attorney Smith informed the court that Perry had defiantly refused to pay the alimony and had not paid a cent toward it.

Perry told Judge Jennings that he had offered to pay $5 a week but that Attorney Smith had refused it. Judge Jennings ordered Perry to pay his wife $40 a month, payable $20 every two weeks, after his pay comes to hand. The first payment to begin next Monday. Judge Jennings instructed Attorney Smith to notify him if Perry did not pay him the money by Monday night, in which case Perry would be placed in the custody of the sheriff. He warned Perry against the consequences if he did not pay and told him that the reason he did not do his wife more good working than if he was committed to jail.
